Subject to Section 6 of this Charter, the Committee has the power to retain outside counsel, compensation consultants or other advisors to assist it in carrying out its activities.

1. Compensation Strategy

The Committee shall review and approve the Company's overall compensation strategy and policies. The Committee, in consultation with the CEO, shall establish the goals and objectives relevant to the annual and long-term incentive compensation, if any, of the executive officers of the Company.

2. Compensation of the CEO

The Committee shall annually evaluate and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the CEO's compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and determine and approve the CEO's compensation levels based on this evaluation. In determining the long-term incentive component of the CEO's compensation, the Committee shall consider the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to the CEOs of comparable companies, the awards given to the CEO in past years and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation (the "Say on Pay Vote") required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.

3. Compensation of Executive Officers and Other Employees

The Committee shall annually evaluate the performance of the Company's executive officers against corporate goals and objectives and review and set the compensation of the executive officers of the Company based on this evaluation, including: (a) the annual base salary level, (b) the annual incentive opportunity level, if any, (c) the long-term incentive opportunity level, if any, and (d) perquisites not generally available to all employees of the Company, if any. In evaluating and determining executive compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.

The Committee shall review and approve, if any, employment agreements, severance arrangements, retirement arrangements, change in control agreements/provisions and any special or supplemental benefits for each executive officer of the Company, including the CEO, as well as any offer letter to any potential executive officer of the Company.

The Committee, upon the request of the CEO or upon its own determination, may also provide oversight of management's decisions concerning the performance and compensation of other employees of the Company. The Committee shall consider and evaluate whether the Company's compensation structure establishes appropriate incentives for executives and other employees of the Company, including whether the Company's compensation policies and practices for its employees and executives give rise to risks that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

4. Compensation Plans

The Committee shall review, approve and recommend to the Board incentive-compensation plans and equity-based compensation plans and amendments thereto in which employees, including executive officers, of the Company are eligible to participate. In reviewing and making recommendations regarding incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans, including whether to adopt, amend or terminate any such plans, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote. In addition, the Committee shall administer these compensation plans if and to the extent it has been granted administrative responsibility in the plan document including, without limitation, establishing guidelines, interpreting documents, selecting participants, approving stock option grants and other awards, establishing and determining attainment of performance goals and making all other decisions required to be made by the plan administrator of such plans.

The Committee also shall review, approve and recommend to the Board the adoption of any employee retirement plan and any other material employee benefit plan, and any material modification of any such plan.

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain and obtain the advice and assistance of outside legal counsel and such other advisors as it deems necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under this Charter. The Committee shall set the compensation, and oversee the work, of its outside legal counsel and other advisors. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to its compensation consultants, outside legal counsel and any other advisors. However, the Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of its compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor to the compensation committee, and the authority granted in this Charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this Charter.

In retaining or seeking advice from compensation consultants, outside counsel and other advisors (other than the Company's in-house counsel), the Committee must take into consideration the following factors:

- Provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the consultant, counsel or other advisor.
- Amount of fees paid by the Company to the person that employs the consultant, counsel or other advisor, as a percentage of that person's total revenue.
- Policies and procedures of the person that employs the consultant, counsel or other advisor that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest.
- Any business or personal relationship between the consultant, counsel or other advisor and any member of the Committee.
- Ownership by the consultant, counsel or other advisor of the Company's stock.
- Any business or personal relationship between the consultant, counsel or other advisor, or the person employing the advisor, and any executive officer of the Company.

The Committee may retain, or receive advice from, any compensation advisor they prefer, including ones that are not independent, after considering the above specified factors. The Committee is not required to assess the independence of any compensation consultant or other advisor that acts in a role limited to consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors and that is generally available to all salaried employees or providing information that is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the consultant or advisor, and about which the consultant or advisor does not provide advice.

The Committee shall evaluate whether any compensation consultant retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K.

7. Proxy Statement Requirements

The Committee shall review and discuss with the Company's management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by the rules and regulations of the Commission, including Regulation S-K, Item 402, and disclosure of compensation practices as related to risk management and any other compensation-related disclosures required by law or regulation. Based on such review and discussion, the Committee shall determine whether to recommend to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's annual report or proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders. The Committee shall provide, over the names of the members of the Committee, the required Committee report for the Company's annual report or proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders.

The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct Say on Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote and the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote to be included in the Company's proxy statement.

8. Succession Planning

The Committee shall meet annually with management regarding succession planning.

9. Committee Procedures

Committee procedures shall be governed by Article III of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws.
